CULT I

Can you read? Considering the paradigm shift in the education sector to hybrid learning created by digitisation during the COVID-19 pandemic, how can the EU enhance digital literacy programs to ensure that the cultural shift towards digital media does not erode foundational literacy and critical thinking skills in education?

42%
number of Europeans lacking basic digital skills

Digital literacy

cybersecurity

effective use of digital technologies

understanding the digital landscape

communication

accessibilty

Digital Education Action Plan

6h 37 min.
Average screen time per day

," In the process of implementing a so-called hybrid system with education, we must consider the educators' needs and perspectives, as well as the students, and the existing concern for security associated with the use of technology.

- Mar Belda (ES)